

Wildwood Rally Pledge-athon

A's Playing for Park Improvements in 2010

The fences and nets, the dugouts, the scoreboard, the lights – they are crumbling before our eyes. Wildwood Park needs improvements and the Sheboygan A's are determined to make them. They have been raising funds for two years for the project but have been able to raise enough to complete only one of the many necessary projects – the safety fencing along the foul lines. This is not a good time to raise money, the A's' have been told. The economy... the economy... the economy...they are reminded.

The A's are tired of hearing about the economy. The A's have decided to raise the money by doing what they do best – playing ball. They have set up a unique system of pledges for their performance. Sponsoring businesses and individual fans are encouraged to participate.

Here is how it works. It is as easy as 1-2-3.

- 1) Select the A's as a team or select an individual A's player.
- 2) Select a category.
- 3) Make a Pledge.

That is all there is to it. So that A's fans of all ages can participate, the minimum pledge is 10 cents, there is no maximum.

Sample pledges might be: I pledge $1 for every game the A's win this year. I will pledge $5 for every home run the A's hit this year. I pledge $2 for every double Tim Patzman hits this year. I pledge $1 for every batter Will Madson strikes out this year. I pledge a quarter for...a dime for...there is no limit on the number of different pledges one person can make, but a separate form must be turned in for each different player.

These are the categories you can pick from:

Batting: At Bats; Runs Scored, Hits, Runs Batted In, Walks, Stolen Bases, Doubles, Triples, Home Runs, Total Bases.

Pitching: Innings Pitched, Strikeouts, Wins

Fielding: Put Outs, Assists, Total Chances, Double Plays

The A's will post the total raised by the pledges before every game so that fans can watch the Wildwood Rally fund. Pledgers will be billed at the end of the season when the team and individual stats are audited.

Here is your chance to help the A's renovate Wildwood Park. Fill out and send in the form below:
